

Transparency Statement

At Ehata for Consultancy and Training LTD., transparency is a cornerstone of our credibility and trust. We are committed to operating with openness, accountability, and independence in every engagement.

Our transparency principles include:

- Clarity of Services: Ehata provides consultancy, risk assessments, intelligence, and training strictly on an advisory basis, without guaranteeing political, financial, or operational outcomes.
- Ethical Information Sourcing: All data and insights are obtained either from open-source intelligence (OSINT) or from human sources (HUMINT) who lawfully consent to share information, always in line with applicable laws and ethical standards.
- Conflict of Interest Management: We act independently of political, financial, or personal influence. Any potential conflict of interest is disclosed promptly to clients.
- Clear Communication: We ensure that our clients receive analysis and deliverables that are transparent in methodology, limitations, and professional judgment.
- Accountability: We hold ourselves accountable to Libyan law, international standards, and our clients' trust, while avoiding any activity that could misrepresent, manipulate, or compromise integrity.

Through this approach, Ehata provides clients with credible, reliable, and impartial insight in environments where clarity and trust are essential.
